

Ahead of her world tour. M.I.A.'s teamed up with cool Danish designer Astrid Andersen for a collection that combines athletic and futurism references. Highlights include an anorak made from 100% recycled plastic created in partnership with Parley For The Oceans. From £40, ohmni.com

* AND FINALLY...

LAST MONTH, GRAZIA REPORTED on claims Jennifer Lawrence's director boyfriend Darren Aronofsky had been 'abusive' to her on the set of Molier. Last week, as the trailer was finally released, Jen appeared to confirm reports, telling US Vogue, 'I ended up getting on oxygen. I have oxygen tubes in my nostrils, and Darren's like, "It was out of focus, we've got to do it again." And I was just like, "Go fuck yourself."'

A LOAD OF GIRLS at a luxury beach resort wearing customised T-shirts? Nope, it's not a hen party but Cara Delevingne's 25th birthday celebrations in Mexico (the tees had her face on them, FYI). Mary Charteris, Adwoa Aboah and Cara's sisters Poppy and Chloe joined the model at Mexico's five-star Chablé Resort & Spa last week, which offers the world's largest private tequila collection. Salud!

THIS YEAR'S JEANS FOR GENES T-shirt features a design by Glasgow School of Art student Molly Linbury, selected by a fashion panel including Kate Moss. Wear yours to help raise awareness and funds for children affected by life-altering genetic disorders. £20. Jeans for Genes sky is on 22 September, jeansforgenes.org
